Navonmesh 2026 Festival – Storytelling Competition

"Tale Tellers" – Rules, Regulations & Instructions for Competitors

1. Competition Overview

Navonmesh 2026 celebrates innovation, creativity, technology, and the relentless pursuit of ideas that shape tomorrow. The Tale Tellers Storytelling Competition invites participants to narrate original stories that reflect these core values — innovation, entrepreneurial mindset, human impact, and future-ready thinking — through compelling spoken or performed narratives. (navonmeshfest.com)

Objective: Encourage creative expression that connects personal experiences or imaginative tales with the festival's overarching theme: Ignite AI Sparks • Blaze Startup Trails. (navonmeshfest.com)

Coordinator: Mr. Sandeep Poddar (9109374537) sandeepkp@aisect.org

---

2. Eligibility & Participation

- Who can participate:
  Students currently enrolled in any undergraduate or postgraduate program.
- Team format:
  Solo performance only (individual participants).
- Language:
  Stories may be presented in English or Hindi. Clear articulation and expression will be judged irrespective of language.

---

3. Competition Categories

Participants may choose one of the following storytelling formats:

- Narrative Storytelling: Traditional spoken word or monologue.
- Performance Storytelling: Incorporates expressive performance, gestures, and/or minimal props.
- Innovative Storytelling: Uses a creative twist — such as tech integration (AI, sound design), multimedia elements, or metaphorical frameworks that reinforce the Navonmesh theme.

---

4. Story Guidelines

- Originality: All stories must be original and not previously published, performed, or entered into other competitions.
- Theme Alignment: Stories should resonate with innovation, creative problem-solving, future technologies, entrepreneurial journeys, or human impact through novel ideas.
- Duration: Maximum 5 minutes per performance.
- Content Standards:

- o   No offensive, discriminatory, or inappropriate content.
- o   Sensitive topics must be handled with respect and care.

---

5. Submission & Registration

Step-by-Step:

1. Register Online: Complete the Navonmesh official storytelling competition registration form by the deadline indicated on the event portal. The applicant has to submit a short video clip (under 1 min and under 50 MB size) at the time of registration.
2. Registration Fee: A non-refundable Registration Fee of ₹200 has to be paid during the Registration Process via online transaction.
3. Final Call: Confirm participation on the day/time slot provided by the organizing committee.

Deadlines: Exact registration and submission deadlines will be announced by the Navonmesh organizing team on the official fest portal.

---

6. Competition Format & Performance Guidelines

1. Check-in: All participants must report to the designated storytelling stage at least 20 minutes before their scheduled time.
2. Performance Setup: Minimal props are allowed; however, no audio playback or pre-recorded tracks unless approved in advance by the judges.
3. Time Limit: Strict 5-minute cap (10% grace allowed for transitions).
4. Judges' Instructions: Begin only when judges signal "start." There will be a visible timer.
5. Technical Support: Basic sound system and mic will be provided. Personal devices (e.g., tablets) for notes must not produce noise during performance.

---

7. Evaluation Criteria

Storytelling entries will be judged on the following weighted parameters:

Criterion	Weight
Relevance to Theme	30%
Originality & Creativity	25%
Story Structure & Clarity	20%
Delivery & Performance	15%
Impact & Engagement	10%

Note: Judges' decisions are final and based solely on these criteria.

---

8. Awards & Recognition

- Top Performers: Winners will be announced during the Navonmesh Awards Ceremony.
- Certificates: All participants will receive certificates of appreciation.
- Prizes: Special prizes (cash or other rewards) will be awarded to top storytellers as per Navonmesh prize structure.
  - Winner - ₹5,000
  - Runner Up - ₹3,000

---

9. Participant Conduct & Rules Enforcement

- Respect fellow participants and organizers at all times.
- Any act of plagiarism or rule violation will lead to immediate disqualification.
- Organizers reserve the right to edit, reschedule, or cancel rounds as needed.